

Dear Santa Claus,

It is Christmas time and I think all children deserve happiness, but unfortunately not all of them are happy. Some of them live in miserable conditions or some of them don't even have a family and I don't think that is fair. This is a period of given and kindness and we should all offer them something, doesn't matter what, a toy, clothes, shoes. I, myself, I would give them all my old toys because I don't need them anymore and I think they will be happy to have them.

If you don't mind, I would be grateful if you gave my present to them. It would be pleasant feeling to know that somebody smiled because of me.

Thank you, Santa, for reading my letter.

Lots of love,
Buga Victoria
